Re: Institute Policies on _____

The _____ and _____ of our students is our priority at all times.

Recently, the Dean's Office has received a number of reports about students

_____, including a very dangerous _____

this past weekend. This is extremely concerning and strictly prohibited by _____, including the _____ and _____ for safety reasons.

Moving forward, anyone who is found to have _____ without express permission will either lose their _____ or be placed on involuntary _____. Please consider this to be a _____ warning.

I'm also asking that the person or persons who _____, causing damage to the _____, come forward of their own accord in order to avoid these _____ when they are otherwise identified.

Thank you for your help as we _____ to keep everyone _____.
